

A Day Out with the Grandkids

Plan Ahead: Rent a spacious Cabana in Duke's Lagoon complete with a dining table, four chairs, mini-fridge, fan, two lounge chairs and all day access to an exclusive area. Reservations are required, so call ahead to 1-866-FUNatDW.

Day 1

Morning: Arrive at 10 AM, and head straight to Duke's Lagoon to check-in to your Cabana, pre-order lunch and choose a delivery time. Take a ride on the Wonderland special to enjoy an overview of the Park. The Sky Ride can be used to travel across the Park.

Lunch: Don't forget about your pre-ordered lunch delivery time at the Cabana. If the day does not include a Cabana, there are two indoor air-conditioned restaurants, Mill Stream Eatery and Castle Café. Avoid long lines by eating lunch before 11 AM or after 2 PM. Relax after lunch with a ride on the Lay Gay River Boat or the Gondola Cruise.

Afternoon: Duke's Lagoon is a great place to splash around and enjoy the afternoon sun. There are also many fun rides in and around Duke's Lagoon. Make sure to have an afternoon snack at The Slush Shack. Don't forget to stop at the Castle Gift Shop before leaving to purchase end of day memory items.

Entertainment: Suggested show schedule:
Bubba Bear and the Badland Band at 11 AM
Thomas & Friends Live at Dutch Wonderland® at 11:30 AM, 3:30 PM or 6:30 PM*

 Showtime available only when the park is open until 8:30 PM

Day 2: Spend the morning at Kitchen Kettle Village where souvenirs, Pennsylvania Dutch crafts and books can be purchased from The Gift House. There are many different shops within the village like a candle shop, a brass shop, a fudge shop, a leather shop and many more. You can also take home a taste of Lancaster County at the Jam & Relish Kitchen. Items include homemade jam, relish, salsa, and much more. Kitchen Kettle Village is located in Intercourse, PA approximately 15 minutes East of Dutch Wonderland. In the afternoon return to Dutch Wonderland for more fun.
