LANCASTER, PA (March 15, 2021) – Dutch Wonderland, Amusement Today's reigning Best Family Park, will begin its 2021 Summer Season on Saturday, May 15. With just two months to go until Opening Day, Dutch Wonderland recruiters are looking to hire more than 350 seasonal employees to make this season the most magical yet.

Job seekers can apply for positions in ride operations, food and beverage, retail and games, guest services, safety and security, campground operations, and more. These jobs offer competitive pay, flexible schedules, perks including free admission to other nearby attractions, and opportunities to advance into supervisory roles.

Dutch Wonderland promotes a fun, dynamic work environment while always prioritizing the health and safety of its team members and guests. Entering 2021, the Park will continue to implement extra protective measures for employees due to the COVID-19 pandemic. From providing masks and gloves, to frequent sanitation of high touch and high traffic areas, to appropriate social distancing, Dutch Wonderland prides itself on being a clean, safe, and wholesome environment for all who enter the castle doors.

This year's seasonal recruitment campaign offers greater flexibility as we continue navigating the pandemic. Interviews may be conducted either in person with appropriate distancing and protective measures, or virtually via a video call. For those who wish to interview in person, sessions will occur on both weekdays and weekends through March, April and May.

Hiring is also underway next door at the Cartoon Network Hotel, which is owned and operated by Palace Entertainment as well. Jobs are available for servers, cooks, baristas and bartenders, along with housekeeping and guest services. The property is the only Cartoon Network Hotel in the world, so joining the cartoon crew means having a job with real character.

Applicants to Dutch Wonderland must be at least 14 years of age or older at the time of application; for the Cartoon Network Hotel, applicants must be 16 or older.
